

We are looking for a native, English nursery teacher

Lil' Mouse House is a nursery with 96 places in Rotkreuz. The quality of the childcare provided in our nursery is determined by the professional and certified qualifications of all our staff members and it is the foundation for the successful implementation of our mission statement.

Lil' Mouse House creates a professional framework which helps children to unleash their educational potential that they have been given to the greatest extent possible. In this sensibly structured, stimulating though protected setting, they playfully develop their skills and abilities. The children are allowed and get motivated to express their own individual personalities. They are also encouraged to explore, to train and to improve their skills in all areas of activities. These new and diverse experiences with themselves, their environment and with other children and adults strengthen their self-confidence and ensure their healthy development.

We offer care in mixed age groups for children as of four months of age until they enter kindergarten. We believe in the early and playful introduction of English as a second nursery language and therefore we are looking for a certified
